

A parents report:

" We all really enjoyed the fun day at Kirkby Thore as a family. It was really great to see my girls having fun whilst learning a lot of important issues regarding being safe in their every day environment. The morning had some thing for everyone with a story time, role play road complete with real policemen and fab junk modelling session with a relaxed atmosphere the time seem to fly by. "

